- Dorm (either floor)  Dorm (main floor, no stairs)  Camping  Day Attender
 Mary Davis Guest House  Other (explain below)

Please contact us if you need a single room or special accommodations. Friends who need a more private living space than the dorms may elect to stay in the Mary Davis Guest House. Cost for these rooms is more than for the dorms, but Friends are encouraged to select housing based on personal needs and pay for housing based on availability of funds. Note: There are two motels 8 miles away in Belmont.

Housing and Other Needs (Including dietary restrictions / preferences, mobility concerns)

Children, Childcare and Youth Program

Families are more than welcome at Quaker Spring! We expect to offer a full program for children of all ages during the morning and evening sessions and a variety of family-friendly field trips and activities. In order to help us plan our programming for families, we ask you to register by June 1, if at all possible. Questions or suggestions? E-mail us at: quakerspring@gmail.com. Below, please tell us the names of any children or youth you plan to bring, and a little about them, including age, expectations, needs, and interests.

Name and background of child or youth registrants:

Fees and Expenses

We run this gathering on a free-will offering, a pay-what-you-are-able basis. If you feel led to attend, please do not stay away for financial reasons. If you are able, please give more to help others with limited means (including Friends from abroad, young adults, retirees, and war tax resisters) to participate.

2020 costs & suggested free-will offering range—including all costs (registration, housing & meals):

Dorm Room or Camping:

- Adults: $35–70 per person per day
- Young Friends and Young Adults (ages 13–35): $20–40 per person per day
- Children (ages 5–12): $10–20 per child per day
- Children 4 and under: free

Day Attenders staying off campus: Pay as led to cover meals and facilities

You can pay your gathering fee—preferably using check or cash — when you arrive at Olney Friends School. It is also possible to pay using PayPal, Visa or MasterCard if that is easier for you. Advance payment is not required. Please let us know ASAP, however, if your plans change.

The total amount (in US $$) I expect to contribute towards gathering expenses for me and my family (enter a zero if you feel unable to afford any contribution towards costs this year):
